This is the boldest attack in Jerusalem in years. Two Damascus-based Palestinian groups are claiming responsibility for the incident. Israeli government officials are hinting that the gunmen may have come from across the border from Lebanon.

They are also suggesting that the terrorists are loyal to Iran's Ayatollah Khomeini.

Oregon Governor Vic Atiyeh is in Jerusalem tonight and his aides say he called his Salem office to notify his staff he is in no danger. He was preparing to go to dinner at the Foreign Ministry when the attack across town.
