
Westside stories in brief

CORNELIUS: Five teens were awarded scholarships and local volunteers were honored May 15 at the Cornelius Booster Club's annual banquet. Aja Gaston, Amber Bonte, Laura Escalona and Joseluis Vasquez were each given $500 scholarships for higher education, said Carol Brown, outgoing club president. Brown was recognized for her three years of service as club president. Bob True, manager of Hank's Thriftway, received the club's Citizen of the year award from Bill Bash. Cornelius Mayor Ralph Brown presented city's Community Volunteer of the year award to Norbert Chartrey. New officers for 2002/2003 were announced. They are Ron McCallum, president; Donna Foster, secretary and Rosemary Padgett, treasurer. The vice president will be named later.

BANKS correction: An article in Thursday's "Westside stories in brief" read Banks residential water customers would pay $2.21 per cubic foot of water after the first 400 cubic feet of water used, if a proposal to increase water rates is approved. It should have read $2.21 per 100 cubic feet of water. The Argus regrets the error.

COUNTY: Community Action Organization is holding a wine raffle to benefit programs for lower-income families. Tickets are $5 each. Call 503-693-3230 for information.