Rev Mr Lyman.

When your letter was handed me I looked at the postmark and writing, and said at once I think this is from Mr Horace Lyman and so the event proved. We shall be very glad to see you in Bristol again. I mentioned your letter to Sam Avery & Mary Churchill's husband and the Beckwith's & some others I have seen and think you do pupils will all be glad to see you. I presume from your direction you did not know that Josiah has passed to the better land. He did in June two years ago. I live with my children in Mr Boardman's old home. My two older sons are in the Savings Bank near the Depot and if you should come unexpectedly you can find them there. Of course I do not know what your engagements are, but my daughter Jennie keeps school in the north part of the place and will have a vacation from Nov 18th till after Thanksgiving and if just as convenient for you it would perhaps be pleasant for us if you could make your visit during that time. If it is not convenient for you to come then, we shall be glad to see you at any time. If your wife or any of your family are with you we should like to see them likewise.

Please let us know when to expect you and we will meet you at the Depot.

With kind regards

Your Obed. Scholar and Friend
Loren T. Peck.
