

CHECK THE RECORD

If you're not sure how to vote in the First Congressional District, consider this:

Our largest newspaper, The Oregonian, says Congressman Les AuCoin puts "political differences aside to work for the good of Oregon." The Daily Astorian says Congressman AuCoin "has dealt effectively with issues of concern to residents of his district." The St. Helens Chronicle says Congressman AuCoin is an "effective legislator in the tradition of Hatfield, Morse and other Oregon leaders."

That's just part of the AuCoin record: independence, staying in touch, and a leader for fiscal restraint, sound defense policies and for expanding the Oregon economy.

The record also shows deep and decisive differences between Congressman AuCoin and his opponent, Bill Moshofsky. Because these differences are crucial to the future of our state, we urge you to read your Voters Pamphlet. We also urge you to consider what these independent, non-partisan voices have to say about Congressman AuCoin. Then do what you can to make the big difference — vote to keep Les AuCoin in Congress on November 6.

CHECK THE RECORD

1. TAXES Les AuCoin is a "persistent and persuasive spokesman for fiscal sanity in the federal government. He has taken a leadership role on the selection of a high powered bipartisan commission to tackle the spending and taxing issue."

The Oregonian, Oct. 16, 1984

CHECK THE RECORD

2. ECONOMIC GROWTH "AuCoin has successfully lobbied for a new timber management program which will increase timber production, create new jobs and provide additional timber revenues. He has also strived to find a solution to the state's fisheries problem."

The Chronicle, Oct. 18, 1984

CHECK THE RECORD

3. FEDERAL SPENDING "Moshofsky strives to depict AuCoin as a big spender. It is standard political fare, but in AuCoin's case it is not fair, and Moshofsky is reduced to distortions of the voting record to bend the record to fit his charges."

The Oregonian, Oct. 16, 1984

CHECK THE RECORD

4. OREGON VETERANS Les AuCoin "has done the Veterans of this state a tremendous service. On behalf of the 27,237 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its Ladies Auxiliary, I convey to Les AuCoin our deepest personal thanks for the role he took ensuring a viable Home and Farm Loan Program."

Robert Bell, Commander, July 5, 1984

CHECK THE RECORD

5. INTEREST RATES "AuCoin's role as a leader of a non-partisan coalition in Congress to put a freeze on federal spending until an approach to dealing with the deficit has been determined must be commended."

The Daily Astorian, Oct. 17, 1984

AuCoin

KEEP HIM IN CONGRESS

Paid for by the Friends of Les AuCoin