On behalf of Oregon, my state and home, I am pleased you are with us tonight. We who live, work, and do business in the state feel a great deal of joy and pride in our mutual accomplishments. I hope that by the end of this evening you will come to appreciate our feelings about Oregon and will want to share in them.

Consider Oregon . . . October is a beautiful month in my state. It would be an excellent time for you to take your next look at Oregon and the opportunities there for your business' future!

Come to Oregon. We appreciate your business.
