Catalog of Books, Recordings and other Gift Items

'I teach a new man,
a new humanity,
a new concept
of being in the world.
My message to humanity is a new man.
Less than that won't do.
Not something modified,
not something continuous
with the past,
but utterly discontinuous.'

To the New Man, "Love is richness, and it means dying to the past and living in the present." This new man takes us "into the territory of the unknown, where history is all bullshit... where we have to free man totally, absolutely, categorically."

"MIND IS A GREAT POLITICIAN" Theologia Mystica -

August 15, 1980

"AN ENLIGHTENED PERSON BECOMES A PERFECT ACTOR" - Theologia Mystica -

August 15, 1980

"An enlightened person will sabotage the whole guilt-ridden structure," Bhagwan states, because "the whole of life is a drama... the moment you become identified there is a problem. Act, as if it is real life; and live as if you are an actor: take life easily, lovingly, playfully."

"I'M AN ORDINARY PERSON: A MADMAN" -

Theologia Mystica - August 16, 1980

Bhagwan says that He speaks gossip, not gospel; the problemless person radiates a certain vibe, which helps others to solve their problems... the unheard music starts pulsating many hearts. "Hence, jokes are the main thing, and everything else is illustration!"

"LIFE IS GOD" - Theologia Mystica - August 18, 1980

If God is the creator, Bhagwan says, then "man cannot be free... because He can uncreate you at any moment." A man like Nietzsche, who declared that God is dead, was "crushed under his own freedom, because he had not found meditation. Existence is full of godliness; in deep meditation, you become part of it..."

"DON'T LIVE IN A REFLECTED GLORY" -

"LOVE IS ALWAYS VERY FRAGILE: HANDLE IT WITH CARE" - Theologia Mystica - August 22, 1980

Because, when you love someone, there is a "deep instinct to know the person... but this is to reduce the person into something dead... rather, love can exist only between two mysterious persons... melt, merge in a deep dance, the way the whole universe has joined hands to create a single flower..."

"IF YOU GO THROUGH ANGER, LOVE ARISES" -

Theologia Mystica - August 22, 1980

This desire to possess, Bhagwan says, "is the foundation of materialism." Anger and greed are part of this desire, but "through understanding, there is transformation. If you go through all these experiences, and accept them as part of life, "this transformation can happen".

THIS COMMUNE, THE BUDDHAFIELD, SHREE RAJNEESH ASHRAM - September, 1980

Here is a man, who has never left India; and in six years time, on six acres of land, with every obstacle imaginable, a Buddhafield has been born. Bhagwan has said that this commune is to be a mirror for the world to see how people from every race, religion and background, can live and work to their ultimate potential in complete harmony. It is more than just a commune; it is a Buddhafield where that ultimate potential which is every person's birthright, can be realized.

"MEDITATION AND LOVE BALANCE EACH OTHER" - Theologia Mystica - August 25, 1980

"Everybody believes that his religion is the greatest, but, all religions are basically one... and the essential core is meditation and love. In meditation, you are capable of being alone; in love, you are capable of sharing."

"Creative energies move toward God." Here, Bhagwan tells us that "we have respected the warrior too much. Hence, all nations live on violence... all politicians are criminals because crime pays; the moral confusion there is, the politicians have more power... Sannyas is an effort to collect all those who are ready to be aware..."

"YOU HAVE TO BE A GAMBLER" - Guida Spirituale - September 4, 1980

"Trust is the ultimate breakthrough," Bhagwan says, "and the way to trust is doubt... if you doubt to the very end, doubt commits suicide... and trust arises. All faith evaporates in the heat of doubt... but it is a dangerous path..."
