Emergency Rent Assistance

503-615-0770

Community Action has limited resources to provide emergency rent assistance so families can stay in their homes, or so that homeless families can obtain affordable housing. These resources are subject to availability.

How Much Help Will I Receive?

To apply for this emergency help you must call the telephone number above and leave a message requesting to be screened for eligibility and availability of funds. Your voice mail message must include a phone number where you can definitely be reached, along with your zip code. A 72-hour eviction notice or a new lease agreement is needed in order to apply. Funds may not be available for residents in some communities in Washington County, Oregon.

"The person I admire the most is my Mom, because she takes care of me and my brother alone."

Chanel, Age 9
