

Mrs Mary Lyman.

Saturday Nov.

I thought last night I had written all I could but hearing Father had received a letter from Br W^m & Sister G. and I thought you might like to hear from them. - they write but little news are all well.
W^m is still in the House building business he sold his beautiful place and built a small house south of it. Br G. is now keeping Hotel in his new building Caroline does not have the care of he hires a woman to superintend, George assists him Perhaps they have written to you since the birth of their little Frank he is a few months old Gertrude writes he grows finely, but C. had to wean him on account of sore mouth. Mr Tomlinson was married in the fall to Chara Russell Cousin of G. Mrs Higley was in last ex said her horse had just left there she has been to Troy to see her mother. her health is delicate she has 3 children. her horse is better than she was 2 years ago. Aunt Cross died in September Lucy at 94 she thinks she will write you before long. Once more good bye. (J.S.M.)
