STATE OF OREGON

INTEROFFICE MEMO

TO: Governor Atiyeh

DATE: February 3, 1984

FROM: Bob Oliver Bob

SUBJECT: Special Session

Attached is a draft proclamation calling a special session. I understand it is your current inclination to call the special session for February 13 at 9:00 a.m., but I have left the day and hour blank, as well as the date on which you sign it. Both copies ought to be signed. When you return, one copy will be filed in the Secretary of State's office, and the other in our own office permanent file.

Meanwhile, Denny has a copy which can be released as soon as you tell him you have signed it.

Section 12, Article V, Oregon Constitution, says the Governor "May on extraordinary occasions convene the Legislative Assembly by Proclamation, and shall state to both houses, when assembled, the purpose for which they shall have been convened." This has not been construed to mean you must personally make an appearance, or even submit a formal, written document - but to conform to the spirit of the Section, it might be advisable to send each presiding officer a concise statement of the reasons for calling them, even if it only echoes what you already have said in the proclamation.
