

COMMUNITY ACTION ORGANIZATION
MULTI-SERVICE CENTER PARTNERS
1001 SW BASELINE, HILLSBORO, OREGON

Housing Development Corporation

Loren Dixon, Executive Director 693-3261

HDC develops, manages and owns farmworker housing in Washington County. Its mission is to invest in Washington County by providing affordable housing for its farmworkers.

La Casa Del Futuro

Javier Correa, Executive Director 693-3231

La Casa provides positive alternatives to Washington County youth involved in gangs or at-risk of gang involvement. Through supportive counseling and support, the youths' needs are identified and linkages are made to needed community services.

Early Intervention

Shirley Wallace, Early Childhood Education Specialist 693-3238

EI provides support to Head Start children with disabilities by ensuring that the children receive needed services and providing consultation to classroom teachers.

PCC Literacy Center (PCC Adult Literacy Volunteer Tutoring West Washington County)

Brigid Baumann, Coordinator 693-3237

The center assists adults who are unable to gain access to the PCC campus to acquire basic education such as GED, basic reading and writing, and English language. Specific activities include volunteer one-on-one tutoring programs and the Even Start Bilingual Family Literacy Program.

Immigration Counseling Services

Madeline Taylor, Outreach

Immigration Counseling Services represents individuals who are eligible for immigration services in immigration court and with the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Washington County Employment and Training Consortium

Fernando Gutierrez, Bilingual Employment Specialist 693-3229

The consortium provides short-term vocational training and job placement services to low income Washington County residents. Spanish-language training and support services are available to those who need them.