Oregon Governor Vic Atiyeh met today with Egyptian President Hosin Mubarak. Atiyeh is in Cairo as part of a trade mission to the Middle East.

Lisa Stark is travelling with the Governor and has this report.

The Governor's meeting with Egyptian President Mubarak was scheduled to last one-half hour. Instead, it ran one hour and 10 minutes and would have gone longer if Atiyeh had not been running behind schedule.

The meeting was private but afterwards Atiyeh said that he and Mubarak cover a wide range of topics and had a very frank and warm discussion. One of the topics covered: a bill in Congress to move the U.S. Embassy in Israel from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Mubarak told Atiyeh he is very disturbed by the bill and feels it will anger the entire Moslem world because Moslems consider Jerusalem an international holy city and not the capital of Israel.

Atiyeh told me he will speak to Oregon's Senators about the bill on behalf of Mubarak. Atiyeh called Mubarak a man of peace and a strong friend of the United States.
